

Travel Advisories, Restrictions and Closures - What Do They Mean?

TRAVEL ADVISORY:

Caution is advised since hazardous conditions could be encountered.

NO UNNECESSARY TRAVEL:

Hazardous driving conditions exist and no unnecessary travel is recommended. This restriction is not mandatory and is left to the traveling public to decide their comfort zone or the roadways, however, if it is essential to travel, do so with caution in considering the changing weather conditions.

ROADS CLOSED EXCEPT FOR ESSENTIAL TRAVEL:

Travel is limited for medical personnel, fire, law enforcement, emergency services and personnel essential to the emergency and those on their way to and from performing essential acts associated with the preservation of life and/or property.

ROADS CLOSED EXCEPT FOR EMERGENCY TRAVEL:

Extremely hazardous driving conditions exist with threatening life and/or property. Travel is limited to emergency vehicles or vehicles on their way to and from performing emergency acts associated with the preservation of life and/or property.
